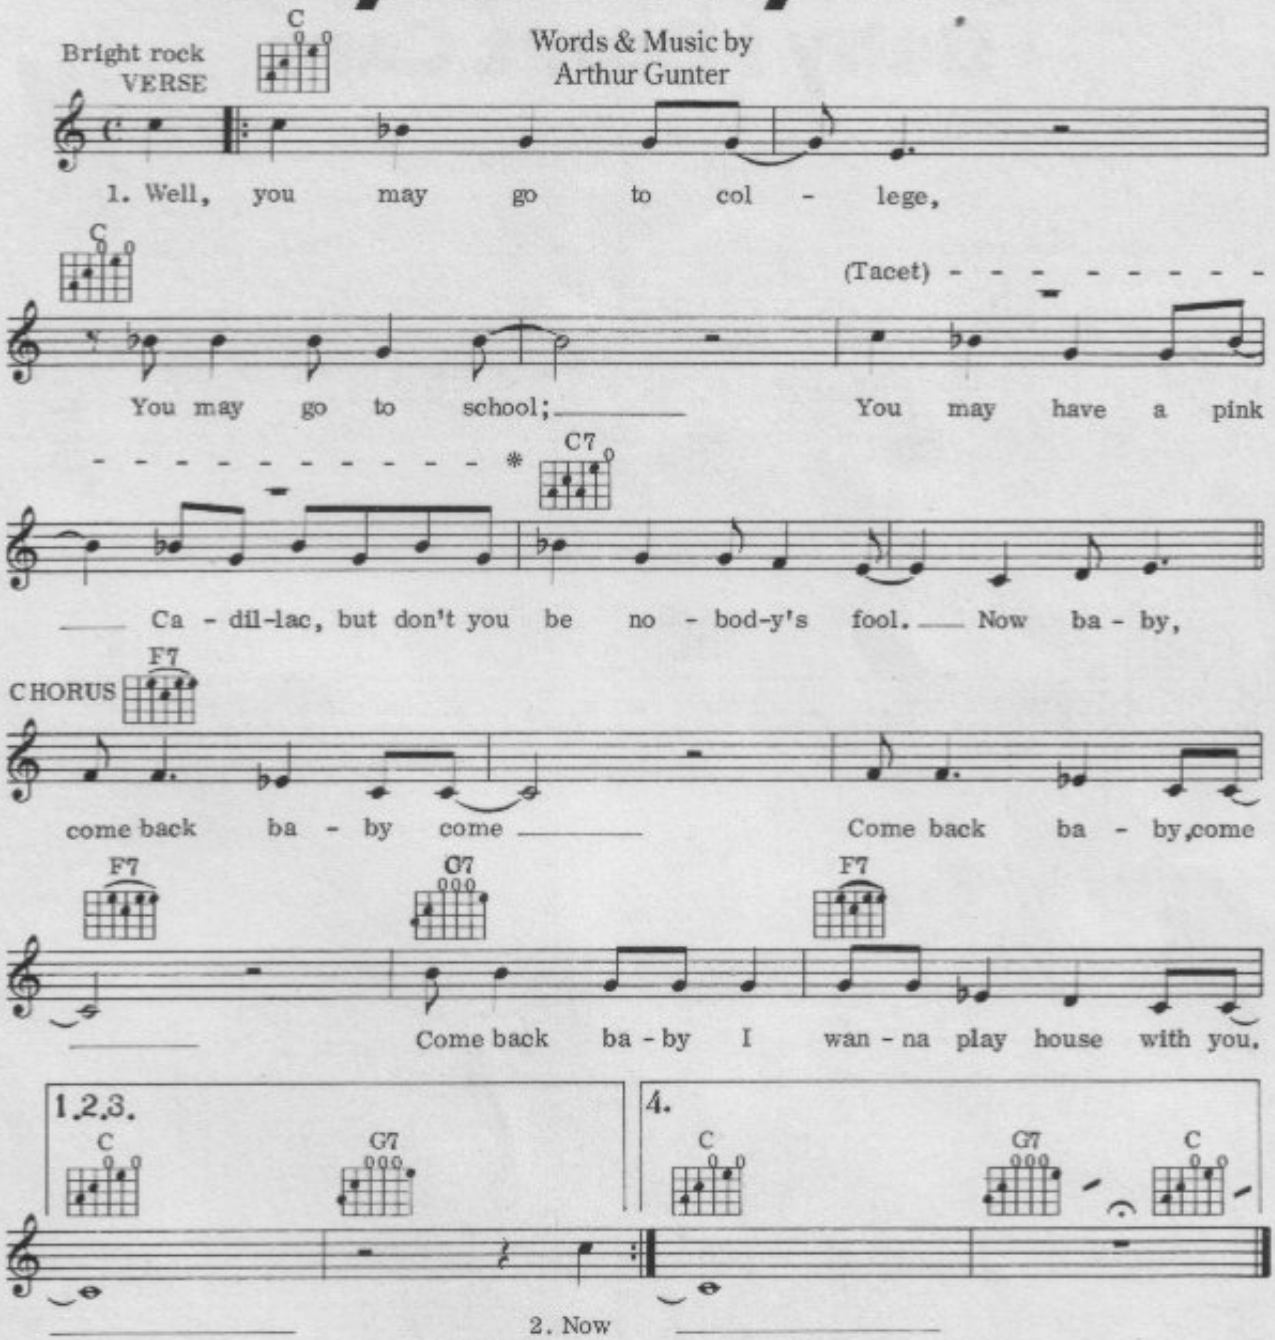
Baby Let's Play House



2. Now, listen and I'll tell you, baby,
What I'm talkin' about.
Come on back to me, little girl,
So we can play some house, now baby,
(To Chorus)

3. Now, this is one thing, baby,
That I want you to know,
Come on back and let's play a little house
So we can act like we did before, now baby,
(To Chorus)

4. Now, listen to me baby,
Try to understand,
I'd rather see you dead, little girl,
Than to be with another man. Now baby,

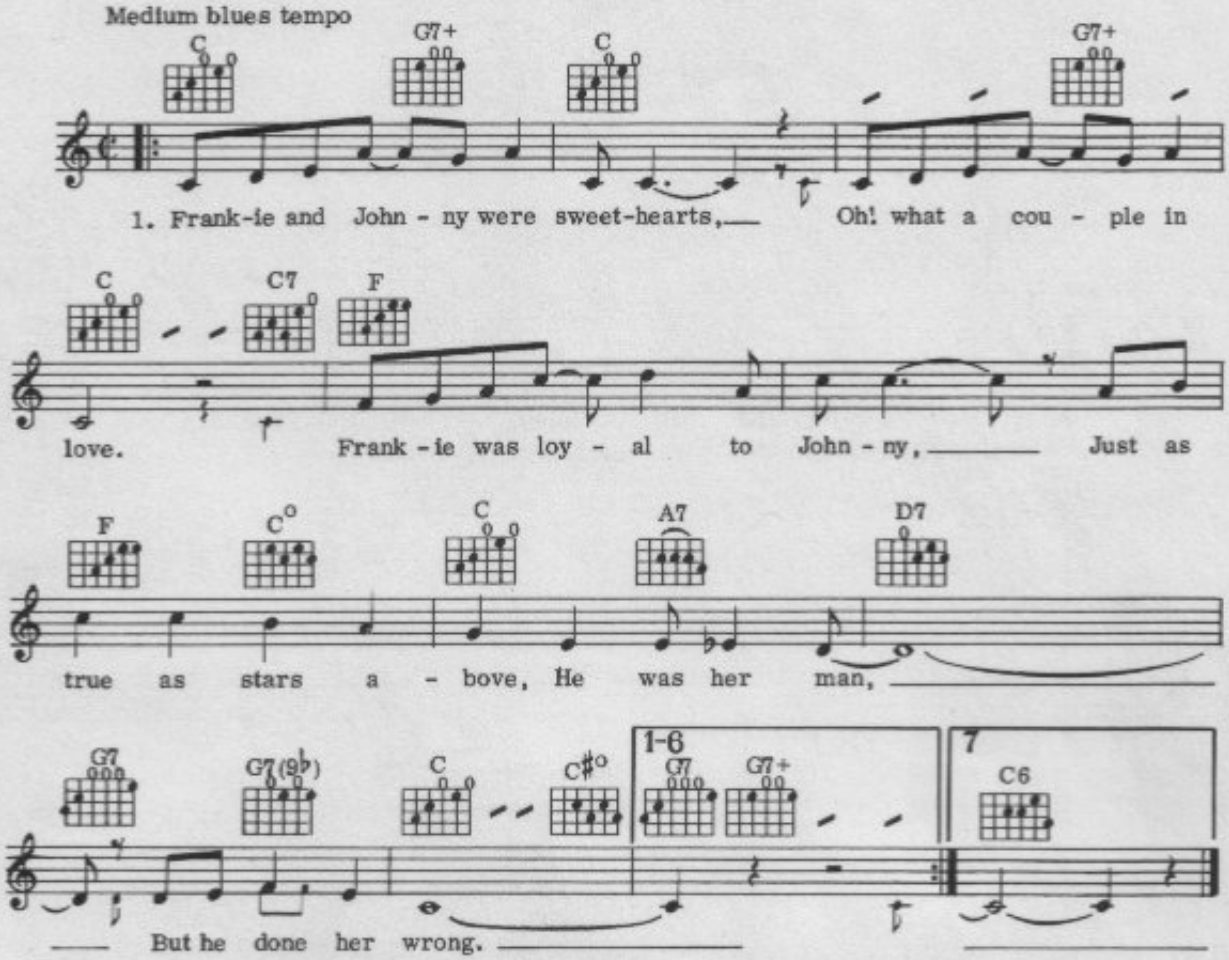
Frankie And Johnny

Traditional



2. Frankie went down to the drug-store,
Some ice-cream she wanted to buy,
The soda jerk told her that Johnny
Was makin' love to Nellie Bly,
He was her man,
But he was doin' her wrong.

3. Frankie's dad was a police-man,
She stole his old forty-four gun,
Then back to the drug-store she beat it,
Just as fast as she could run,
After her man,
Who was doin' her wrong.

4. Frankie peeked in on the party,
She got a surprise when she saw
That Nellie and Johnny were makin' love
And sippin' soda thru a straw,
He was her man,
But he was doin' her wrong.

5. Frankie flew into a tantrum,
She whipped out that old forty-four,
And her root-ta-ti-toot that gal did shoot
Right thru that hard-wood swingin' door,
She shot her man,
'Cause he was doin' her wrong.

6. Bring on your crepe and your flowers,
And bring on your rubber tyred hack,
'Cause there's eight men to go to the grave-yard,
But only seven are comin' back,
She shot her man,
'Cause he was doin' her wrong.

7. This is the end of my story,
And this is the end of my song,
Frankie is down in the jail-house,
And she cries the whole night long,
"He was my man,
But he done me wrong."

Verse 2.
Right away I bought me a through train ticket.
Ridin' across Mississippi clean,
And I was on the Midnight Flyer out of Birmingham,
Smokin' into New Orleans.
Somebody helped me get out of Louisiana,
Just to help me get to Houston Town.
There are people there who care a little about me,
And they won't let a poor boy down.
Sure as you're born, they bought me a silk suit,
They put luggage in my hand,
And I woke up high over Albuquerque on a jet
to the Promised Land.

Verse 3.
Workin' on a T.bone steak,
I had a party flyin' over to the Golden State.
When the pilot told us in thirteen minutes
He would get us at the Terminal Gate.
Swing low, chariot, come down easy,
Taxi to the Terminal Line;
Cut your engines, and cool your wings,
And let me make it to the telephone.
Los Angeles, give me Norfolk, Virginia,
Tidewater 4-10-0-0,
Tell the folks back home this is the Promised
Land callin' and the poor boy's on the line.

Verse 2. Go by your father's house and tell him business is slow,
See if he will loan you some, 'cos soon you'll get the dough;
Put the cat out in the hall and rumple-up the room,
Go to Doctor Cannon, tell him you swallowed some perfume.
Tell him that you need it quick so he will have to testify
You been sick all day and that's a perfect alibi.
(To Chorus)

Verse 3. Go and tell your mam in case you run into a man,
Go by the shop and get the stuff and hide it in the van;
Go back to your father's, get the money for the bail;
Bring it down and bail me out this rotten funky jail.
We got to tell a lawyer in the trick of politics,
Somebody who can win this thing and get this thing fixed.

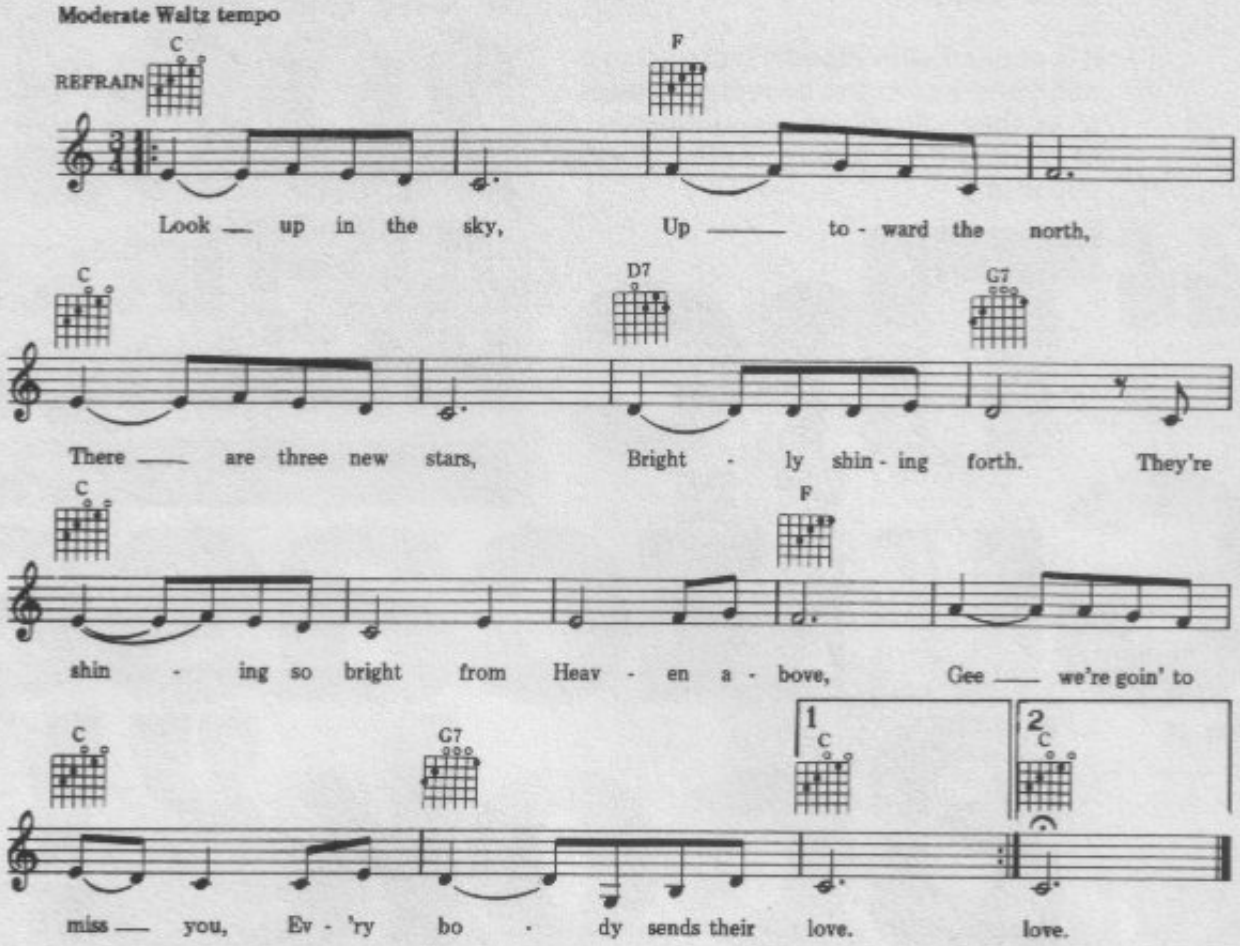
Three Stars

Words & Music by
Tommy Dee



RECITATION (with music of Refrain for background)

Richie, you were just starting to realise your dreams,
Everyone calls me a kid, but you were only seventeen.
Now Almighty God has called you, from oh so far away,
Maybe it's to save some boy or girl, who might have gone astray.
And with your star shining through the dark and lonely night,
To light the path and show the way, the way that's right.
(Sing last 4 measures of Refrain)

Buddy, I can still see you, with that shy grin on your face,
Seems like your hair was always a little messed up and kinda out of place.
Now, not many people actually knew you, or understood how you felt,
But just a song, just a song from you could make the coldest heart melt.
Well you're singing for God now, in his chorus in the sky,
Buddy Holly, I'll always remember you with tears in my eyes.
(Sing last 4 measures of Refrain)

I see a stout man, the Big Bopper's your name,
God called you to Heaven, maybe for new fortune and fame.
Keep wearing that big stetson hat, and ramble up to the mike,
And don't forget those wonderful words...
You know what I like.
(Sing Refrain)
